

Public or private companies (small, medium or large enterprise (including social enterprises) may be included. Therefore, whereas this action is primarily targeting associations, NGOs and more generally non-for-profit organizations, for-profit organizations can be involved if a clear added value is demonstrated for the project. However, in a capacity building objective, coordination tasks must be limited to non-for-profit organizations.

Capacity-building projects are international cooperation projects based on multilateral partnerships between organizations active in the field of youth in Programme and third countries not associated to the Programme. They aim to support the international cooperation and policy dialogue in the field of youth and non-formal learning, as a driver of sustainable socio-economic development and well-being of youth organizations and young people.

Thematic Areas / Specific Objectives

Proposals should focus on one or more of the following thematic areas:

- Political participation and dialogue with decision-makers;
- inclusion of young people with fewer opportunities;
- democracy, rule of law and values;
- empowerment / engagement / employability of young people;
- peace and post-conflict reconciliation;
- environment and climate;
- anti-discrimination and gender equality;
- digital and entrepreneurial skills

Who can apply?

The following organizations can be involved as coordinator:

- NGOs (including European Youth NGOs and national Youth Councils) working in the field of Youth
- Public authorities at local, regional or national level

The organization applies on behalf of all participating organizations involved in the project and must be legally established and located in an EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme or a third country not associated to the Programme which is eligible for participation in this action.

What types of organizations are eligible to participate in the project?

Any organization, public or private, with its affiliated entities (if any), working with or for young people outside formal settings established in an EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme, or in a third country not associated to the Programme from regions 1 and 3. Such organizations can, for example, be:

- A non-profit organization, association, NGO (including European Youth NGOs);
- a national Youth Council;
- a public authority at local, regional or national level;
- an education or research institution;
- a foundation.
