

Public or private companies (small, medium or large enterprise (including social enterprises) may be included).

Therefore, whereas this action is primarily targeting associations, NGOs and more generally non-for-profit organizations, for-profit organizations can be involved if a clear added value is demonstrated for the project. However, in a capacity building objective, coordination tasks must be limited to non-for-profit organizations.

Where to apply?

To the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA).

Capacity building in the field of SPORT

Erasmus+
Enriching lives, opening minds.

Erasmus+
Enriching lives, opening minds.

Capacity-building projects are international cooperation projects based on multilateral partnerships between organizations active in the field of sport in Programme and Third countries not associated to the Programme.

They aim to support sport activities and policies in Third countries not associated to the Programme as a vehicle to promote values as well as an educational tool to promote the personal and social development of individuals and build more cohesive communities.

Thematic Areas / Specific Objectives

Proposals should focus on certain thematic areas defined at programming stage.

Examples of particularly relevant areas are:

- Promotion of common values, non-discrimination and gender equality through sport;
- development of skills (through sport) needed to improve the social involvement of disadvantaged groups (e.g. independence, leadership etc.).
- integration of migrants;
- post-conflict reconciliation;

Who can apply?

Any public or private organization, with its affiliated entity (if any), active in the field of sport, established in an EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme or a third country not associated to the Programme which is eligible for participation in this action.

What types of organizations are eligible to participate in the project?

Any organization, public or private, working with or for young people outside formal settings established in an EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme or a third country not associated to the Programme from Region 1. Such organizations can, for example, be:

- A public body in charge of sport at local, regional or national level;
- a sport organization at local, regional, national, European or international level;
- a National Olympic Committee or National Sport confederation;
- an organisation representing the 'sport for all' movement;
- an organisation active in the field of physical activity promotion;
- an organisation representing the active leisure sector;
